

DEUTSCHES HAUS
The German Presence in the Gulf South

The German Military History Club
&
N.O.L.H.A.M.
Kick off its Military Lecture Series

"CAMP NICHOLLS: SOLDIERS' HOME OF LOUISIANA"

The military history of 1700 Moss Street (new Deutsches Haus).

History of the site includes time as a home for elderly and disabled Civil War veterans and, later, as a Cold War Era Louisiana National Guard facility.

Saturday March 31, 2018, 7pm (doors open at 6pm)

*Deutsches Haus
1023 Ridgewood Dr.
Metairie, LA*

Presented by R. Breerwood

Rhett Breerwood is the Command Historian of the Louisiana National Guard. His mission includes the collection, organization, and interpretation of Louisiana military history, especially as it pertains to the militia and National Guard. He works closely with Louisiana National Guard Museums at Jackson Barracks in New Orleans and Camp Beauregard in Pineville . He completed his graduate studies at the University of New Orleans. Rhett was born and raised in Metairie and currently lives there with his family.