

DEUTSCHES HAUS
THE GERMAN PRESENCE IN THE GULF SOUTH

APRIL NEWSLETTER

Hello all members and friends,

I am very proud to announce that the mortgage on the Haus has OFFICIALLY been PAID OFF !!!

Thanks go to the membership and all Board members that helped us reach this goal. It is truly an historical moment in Deutsches Haus history. We now move into the second chapter in our mission to foster heritage, tradition, culture, and Gemütlichkeit.

Don't forget Frühlingsfest (aka Volksfest/Maifest) with its new format and activities April 10th, 11th, 12th.

Glück, Erfolg, Gesundheit
Mit freundlichen Grüßen
Keith Oldendorf

7:00PM

The Trombone Choir is comprised of volunteer, community trombonists from high school students to professional musicians. Since its inception, they have played a variety of venues throughout the greater New Orleans area including French Quarter Fest. They performed annually at Trinity Episcopal Church's "Back Around The Clock", Trinity Episcopal's "Trinity Artist Series", on various TV stations and more. In the NECA Chamber Fest competition, they won the Gold Medal in the Community Division two years in a row. They will present a classical program from several composers.

Free and Open to the Public

This is sponsored by the German-American Cultural Center of Greater and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Deutsches Haus.
